The Internationalisation of Higher Education
An on-line training course

When
2nd edition: February - September 2014

How to apply
01 October - 15 November 2013 on www.interhed.eu
Selection results: January 2014
The course is free of charge

www.interhed.eu - info@interhed.eu
This professional-oriented training course will provide the learners with basic knowledge, skills and tools on the main ongoing issues and topics relevant for joint programmes.

The course is based on a “hands on” approach, focusing on practical case studies and concrete tips for the daily job in the field.

Examples and practical exercises will be provided, as well as a section on information sources.

Course structure

MODULE 1
UNDERSTANDING HIGHER EDUCATION SYSTEMS
Characteristics of HED systems
HED Institutions
Degree structures and Qualifications Frameworks
HED in Emerging Countries: BRICS
Terminology and information resources

MODULE 2
DEVELOPING JOINT PROGRAMMES
Characteristics of joint programmes
Characteristics of joint degrees
Networks and partnerships among HED Institutions
Student management in joint programmes
Terminology and information resources

MODULE 3
RECOGNITION PROCEDURES
Academic recognition procedures
Professional recognition procedures
Awarding and recognition of joint qualifications
Bologna Process instruments for recognition
Terminology and information resources

FACE-TO-FACE SESSION
How to create & manage a joint programme

---

Aims

Administrative and academic staff in Higher Education Institutions involved with implementation, assessment and monitoring of joint programmes

Officers from national authorities, Higher Education networks, organizations and associations dealing with internationalisation of Higher Education

Dealing with the structure of the different Higher Education systems

Approaching the management of joint programmes

Facing the main issues in recognition of qualifications

---

Target groups

Administrative and academic staff in Higher Education Institutions involved with implementation, assessment and monitoring of joint programmes

Officers from national authorities, Higher Education networks, organizations and associations dealing with internationalisation of Higher Education

Learning outcomes

Dealing with the structure of the different Higher Education systems

Approaching the management of joint programmes

Facing the main issues in recognition of qualifications

---

Learning outcomes

Dealing with the structure of the different Higher Education systems

Approaching the management of joint programmes

Facing the main issues in recognition of qualifications